We are extremely excited about this collection of important new books from some of the world's most influential thinkers and esteemed scientists, including both well established bestselling authors, and fresh voices whose groundbreaking work is being presented to the trade audience for the first time. We are looking forward to discussing these projects with you before, during, and after the fair. At the above link, you will find proposals (see PROPOSALS), newly published books, and manuscripts just delivered (see NEW BOOKS), as well as our recent backlist (see RECENTLY PUBLISHED TITLES), and books still in progress (see WORK IN PROGRESS.)

In addition, we will also have our hot-list of brand new projects that we will be presenting and selling at the fair.

Best regards,

JB, Katinka, Max, and Russell
