Jeffrey

The $10 million that I transferred to Mort Inc. is currently in a non =interest bearing account at JP Morgan. This non interest bearing account =s fully insured by the FDIC until the end of calendar year 2012. If we =transfer the funds to an interest bearing account then only $150,000 is =DIC insured. Also, the total interest that we would receive is =pproximately 20 basis points.

Should I transfer the funds to an interest bearing account, or leave the =unds in the non interest account.

Happy Rosh Hashana

Thanks

Harry
