Just had dinner and hung out with Boris.

He is working so hard but hopefully things are turning in a direction =hat he is happy about. Sounds like it. Am happy that he's feeling better a=out his future.

He said you guys had a really good time.

He gave me some more information that really made me sad but that I know is=true and will always be a barrier within the current work world. UGH></=iv>

Sorry we didn't talk this weekend.
