Im told that erika received a letter from JP/. =C2 I have asked her to request permisioin to continue to re=ove debris and bring reilef supplies . the tension among=t many of the staff who have no homes to return to , no power , water for =heir families but relying on my bringing them help is difficul= to control. I worked closely with coast guard to be ext=a careful not to have any issues. I would greatly appreciate y=ur thoughts and guidance. . i will ask for emergency permissio= to continue to help these people. john woods said=he is just getting up and running in order to join the more orderly permit=process. . I will not return to the VI for two or three =ore weeks. hope you and your family are well
