We received this email prior to the email we sent below. As soon as she acknowledges my email, I will send the second email detailing all the scope reductions we discussed yesterday.

Dear Karen,

I walked through the apartment yesterday. I'm really pleased with the progress.

1. I very much need a completion schedule, including all the missing pieces of millwork, stonework and the dates they will arrive.
2. I think it would be helpful at this juncture, so as to assess progress, if we do a major clean out of the apartment (garbage and organize materials, etc.).
3. In order to prevent further surprises please submit a final Budget (together with the aforementioned schedule).
4. I am hoping that the bulk of your work can be done before the holidays so my painter can begin the final stage, as my current professional demands necessitate that I re-occupy the apartment approximately 2/1/18.
5. I look forward to receiving the aforementioned details asap and also settling our current misunderstanding with regard to $ quickly.

Thank you,

xoxo,

Peggy

Hi Rebecca,

I am traveling tomorrow, and won't be available until 6 pm. What is the purpose of the call?</=pan>

Please let Peggy know that we did not receive her payment today at 5 pm. This is the third request. The team is starting to pull off the job and will be out by end of day Friday.

Sincerely,

Karen
