Thanks Cecile.... As always so nice to hear from you. All is well here. Bernie told me about your enjoyable dinner and that he even ran into you afterwards. I am so glad he is taking the time to enjoy himself. Recently Historic Newton Museums held a reception commemorating the acquisition of his papers. It was lovely. And John wrote the most thoughtful note to Bernie. Today Bernie is being taped for a television show about his accomplishments. It's a wonderful time of life for him. He's even spending July and August on Martha's Vineyard with Calypso! And I am talking the bus from Boston to the ferry Thursday nights (what's wrong with this picture) None the less, all is well. My book comes out October 9th. And I am delighted

Happy to talk to Jeff and Liz. I am around.

Look forward to seeing you Christmas if not before.

Warmest regards,

Carol

Subject: Antilles School Alumni Meeting in Boston

Good afternoon Carol,

I hope all is well with you, Bernie and Calypso. I'm sure that you are spending your weekends on MV now that summer has finally arrived. John and I had a wonderful dinner with Bernie while you were stuck in one of the many the Boston snow storms (and I admit that we had a good chuckle at your expense). I even ran into Bernie at Lattes in Paradise on the day he was to leave; he was sitting in the sun, reading the Daily News and soaking up the last of the warm weather while he could. Our hope was to come up north sometime this summer and see you both but other events have overtaken us.

The main purpose for this email is to introduce you to Jeff McGuinness. Jeff is the Director of Advancement for Antilles School. He and Liz Morrison (Head of School) will be visiting Boston to get together with Boston area alumni. When they mentioned this to me I told them that a visit to Boston would not be complete without meeting Carol Fulp. Jeff and Liz are on friend-raising journey and there is no one better at that than you. I hope you don't mind that they will be contacting you and hopefully you have some time to spare to meet with them.

Be well, say hi to Bernie, give Calypso a good pat for me, and I will be giving you a call to catch up in the next few days.

With warmest regards,

Cecile
