Below from Woody Allen re getting together, etc:

I will definitely figure out some time to get together when you're in =own. I'm still acting in the John Turturro movie which has turned out a =it longer than planned due to a delay from the hurricane. Soon-Yi and I =ill figure out some lunch or dinner time while you're here in town. If =t any time you're up to it, I could screen an almost finished cut of my =ew movie for you in my cutting room but the only problem is if you're =ating and are bored still you feel you won't be able to stand up and =ay "This stinks!" and leave (Of course, you would be free to do that) = Meanwhile, I had the brilliant idea that after our time in Paris on =hristmas Day instead of flying off to your island (my worst nightmare) =e could all fly off to Venice for a few days which is the best time of =he year there. Just a thought.

Give me a call when you get to New York and we'll work out getting =ogether.
Woody.
