The saga of the funds for taxes is v=ry strange. We have no record of having been informed about this, pr=or to a letter from Deborah a few weeks ago that I sent on to you. A= you pointed out to us, it's a pretty odd procedure. When we hea=d about it, we tried to find out whether our tax payments had in fact been=reduced. To do so we needed information from the accountant Nick Nic=ols on taxes due, which we could then compare with taxes we paid. We=#39;ve been waiting for an answer from him for almost three weeks. N= word. So we have no idea whether this happened.

I don't know anything about the gifts to the grandchildren from t=e marital trust, but I suppose I might not have been informed about that.<=div>

I don't understand what Harry wants to discuss= I wrote to the three kids in some detail, several times, explaining=the financial circumstances, but never really heard anything substantive b=ck.

I guess I could write to Harry, telling him t=at RK informed me that he wants to discuss some matters with me, and ask h=m what matters.

What do you think?
