You should also understand where I come from and the idea= I was brought up with since I was a child. I grew up very spoiled, with a=luxurious lifestyle surrounded by rich kids and with a father who wa= answering to interviews when asked if he ever worked " no, I've =ever had the time". I don't say this is right but this is where I=come from and you should understand why I'm constantly batlling betwee= conflicting ideas in my mind linked to my past. I'm trying hard to ch=nge and compared to who I was I am a different person now
