If my mind were a retail shop, it would be displaying a sign that said "closed for inventory". I am sorry we haven't spent more time together lately. There are few people whose judgment I trust as much as yours, and as you know I have always been there if you needed anything. Whether a plane for Lisa or money in order to enable you to assist your friend Andre. I recognized, when you were at the White House, my more colorful past had strained some of your relations with others however, I am aware that the hesitancy to engage is still palpable. I am trying to make some course corrections as I approach the springtime of my senility, and look to you, sincerely in the hope of being able to input some new coordinates, please be direct. That is our shared characteristic.
