I don't think so. We gave him the general acct info as part of the last freedom of info request. We gave him almost nothing however. Just account names and sources. I expected them to ask for something more.

Sigh. Ok Amelia. We can talk about this. I believe the donors to foundation chose to remain anonymous. But anyway Amelia we can talk about this on Monday or Tuesday.

Hi Cindy,

I'm in Mexico City for the Origins event, and am in transit now, with no access to my computer and very spotty reception. Is it possible for you to send over specific questions? If a conversation is better I can try to reach you tomorrow morning. Please let me know.

Best,
Amelia

Amelia,

Could you please call me at [REDACTED] today? Our office sent BuzzFeed the responsive documents to its public records request. The reporter is asking for more detail. I would like to discuss with you the records that are maintained with respect to the state account, PSIF account and local accounts. I don't know if it would be helpful if Cynthia Schultz could join the call (not sure that Jessica Strycker or Michael McLendon are involved in administering those fund categories).

Dr. Krauss and Amelia,

The Office of General Counsel received a public record request for certain records pertaining to Dr. Krauss individually (I've obtained that information from Debra Murphy in the Office of Research Integrity and Assurance) and The Origins Project. I'm writing to alert you to this request and to ask your assistance to gathering responsive documents to the question pertaining to records of research or other funding received by The Origins Project from 2008 onward. The requester is specifically asking as to each funding source:

(1) The funding source (organization or individual), (2) amount received, (3) purpose and (4) the date awarded/granted.

Deb Murphy reached out to Cynthia Schulte and obtained the account numbers for the funding sources for The Origins Project. I'm attaching that email. Can you please assist with this request? Our obligation under the state public records act is to respond "promptly" (which is not specifically defined but is ascertained from the nature of the request). I am hopeful that we can have the responsive information by Wednesday of this week. I am happy to discuss any questions that you have by phone. My direct line is [REDACTED]
Thank you.<=>
