could we set aside 30 minutes so that you can bring me up to date on your w=rk, phone weekend - next week? , quesiton , If ti=e behaved more like a field or force , than merly a metric, . causin= an acceleration of space/ .if i had a one dimensional space with tw= distant objects, applying a force in the second dimention would draw t=e two objects together. it would lllok loike gravity in the one dimesio=. same for two/ maybe for three.??? what would the ma=h look like ?
