Hi Jeffrey,

Thanks for your time =esterday.

Would love to continue our conversation. =nbsp;If I stayed here in NYC for another 2 days, would you have time? =nbsp;I could also see if Stephan could bring the Vive up to setup at =our place. Otherwise, can we meet in Paris in Jan? I can =ry to get Alain Forget there for you to meet (if you haven't =lready). Alain is the subject that Peter uses for his studies. =nbsp;

Briefly =here we were was:

- 1) The "Evolving =aravan" and events to identify scientists and people with =special abilities (more subjects for research).
- 2) =nbsp;Research methodologies and experiments that stand up to rigour =network of labs and researchers around the world, common protocols, =deally you can also support Peter who is part of this, etc.). 2nd =erson research methodologies (we haven't talked about this). =nbsp;I am seeing NYU and Columbia University faculty later today to =alk about this.
- 3) "Polystery◆=80◆ for rehabilitating "stage 3" people (examples =like Edd who have gifts, but are not able to support themselves). =nbsp;Have a sustainable model for this. Also supports (1). =nbsp;Builds community and eco-system.

Would like to build a global network. =nbsp;We didn't even talk about China and work there or =uba.

Would =ike to apply the 60-75k allocated from last year to pilot some of this. =nbsp;Wanted to see if we could establish some metrics that could lead =o more funding if we are successful.

The benefits to you are:

- 1) More interesting people to meet.
- 2) Helping to develop a theory of development and human =otential.
- 3) Advancing knowledge and =experimental methodologies (e.g., 2nd person methodologies).
- 4) Adds a new dimension to the interests that you =lready have in music, language, and psychology.
- 5) Provide services that are unique for the community =f people that you know (e.g., high stage 2, low stage 3 people). =nbsp;There are new models such as the initial proposition I made to you =ast year (collaborating on developing a service to "shift"=people that are unhappy).
- 6) Potentially =uild a community of people that can do amazing things together (Joscha, =asha, etc.) that can also provide support for (4).

P.S.
