Hoping I delivered on everything he asked - the =lzheimer work, the status of neurotech, and my thoughts on a domain specif=c effort that could be game changing.

All are documented with presentations and were followed up in meetings with=he and Larry.

Now I guess it's a wait and see game. Suspect after a week or two i= I don't hear back then I should ask again. What do you think?

I'd rather move ahead in a positive direction with someone who enjo=s and understands brain science and wants to do something creative =94- like Paul Allen.
