always fun. howvefr as yo= saw for yourself. ed had no effect on anyone new. ? =A0 shame. I suggest you find elon that was in stua=ts confence with deepak. so far the only one but might have be=n a trick

a list of univerestied publications and proejcts =A0 that are attempting to do things in this space. .

rigor applied to arguments of physiology vs phenomenology. =A0 . experements. . I have some inmind . =A0 masga and joshca are not in this space , no= should they be , they have computational work to do no wor=y about money , i will fund anything rigor and meangiful

Hi=Jeffrey,

Thanks for your time yesterday.

Would love to conti=ue our conversation. If I stayed here in NYC for another 2 days, wou=d you have time? I could also see if Stephan could bring the Vive up-to setup at your place. Otherwise, can we meet in Paris in Jan? =A0 I can try to get Alain Forget there for you to meet (if you haven =99t already). Alain is the subject that Peter uses for his studies. =C2

Briefly where we were was:

1) =A0The “Evolving caravan” and events to identify scientists=and people with special abilities (more subjects for research).

=) Research methodologies and experiments that stand up to rigour (ne=work of labs and researchers around the world, common protocols, Ideally y=u can also support Peter who is part of this, etc.). 2nd person rese=rch methodologies (we haven’t talked about this). I am seein= NYU and Columbia University faculty later today to talk about this. =A0

3) “Polystery” for rehabilitating =80 stage 3” people (examples like Edd who have gifts, but are no= able to support themselves). Have a sustainable model for this. =A0 Also supports (1). Builds community and eco-system.

<=iv>

Would like to build a global network. We didn =80 t even talk about China and work there or Cuba.

<=iv>Would like to apply the 60-75k allocated from last year to pilot some o= this. Wanted to see if we could establish some metrics that could l=ad to more funding if we are successful.

T=e benefits to you are:

- 1) More interesting people to meet.=/div>
- 2) Helping to develop a theory of development and human po=ential.
- 3) Advancing knowledge and experimental methodolog=es (e.g., 2nd person methodologies).

- 4) Adds a new dimension to the interests that you already have in music, language, and psychology.
- 5) Provide services that are unique for the community of people that you know (e.g., high stage 2, low stage 3 people). Also There are new models such as the initial proposition I made to you last year (collaborating on developing a service to "shift" people that are unhappy).
- 6) Potentially build a community of people that can do amazing things together (Joscha, Masha, etc.) that can also provide support for (4).

P.S.
