dear Gordon and Jeffrey good news (for me at least)--the paper on symmetrical knees predicting sprinting ability in Jamaicans 14 years later is now accepted at PLOS ONE, a top journal, with a quick turnaround time; their suggested changes are all minor and will only make the paper stronger i intend to approach Puma (Usain Bolt, Shelley Ann Fraser), Nike (Asafa Powell) and Adidas (i forget who) to see if they will contribute some of their ill-begotten gain to science; if either of you have contacts with people at high levels in these companies, this could be helpful but i believe i can generate the money off of the international publicity i expect our paper to generate thanks again to both of you--at opposite ends of the 14 years--for making this work possible !

with warmest best wishes robert
