If we can take time to look where we are and we find suggestions that are not completely anxiety provoking and useful then that would be nice. Jeffrey I got not such good feedback from a recruitment agency which is why I started with a "scheme". I wanted to talk to you about it in person. British people have to follow the same laws on OPT. If you enter on H-1B you lose OPT, you can't switch between any visa and H-1B and still keep visa I don't think.

no sure, but we have to take care to look at where we are, realistically, these schemes; to get work, school degrees. . visa issues , take a great deal of your time energy and creativity. but have to date produced little in true substance. TIME =OR A CHANGE , no british citizen has a visa issue in the state=. opt school, worry, about perfecting a project rather than merely following directions. its getting dangerous for me to allow you to continue to delude yourself. sorry

I am doing my best to try growing up as best I know how. The job market is tough and I have to market myself heavily online to come close to finding any chance, and that comes with its own concerns for me. So I am navigating my way around these issues as best and quickly as I can.

Brock and I are on good terms and I adore him but he is married for now and living a lifestyle I don't think I could keep up with in a healthy way.

I want to have my own job. Yes it is extremely taxing to find but I believe it will do me good. I am working every day at finding ways to navigate it and trying to build connections.
