Subject: Temporary results

Hi Jeffrey,

You will see that results have slipped dramatically in the last week. This is temporary.

I upgraded all of the heading tags and meta tags, with the advice of the GoDaddy tech team.

As a result, search engine visibility according to GoDaddy's marker is up to 97%. But it takes Google a couple of weeks to recalibrate the new websites.

My apologies for this-- but it was necessary and I expect results to reverse itself in 2 weeks.
