Jeffrey,

We are in the process of securing a loan to provide the company with growth=capital. I was informed by the prospective lender that my credit report co=tained a record of a judgment against me. I just received my credit report=and there is a record of a judgment in your favor with status indicating &=uot;Not resolved." This has a significant negative impact on my credi=. As you know, we are current on our obligations under our agreement. I L=;ve asked Rich on numerous occasions since we signed the agreement to ensu=e that the appropriate paperwork was filed with the Marshall's Office =o notify them of status. He has not replied to my emails. I can only assum= that it is not your intention to cause me permanent damage and hardship a=d prevent me from obtaining credit (especially so I can grow my company an= retire your very costly loan!) so I would like to ask for your assistance=in removing this from my credit report -- I do not have the legal expertis= to know the machinations but I understand that mechanisms do exist. Time =s of the essence because this loan is pending.

Thank you,

Adam
