Subject: African sculptures

I am waiting on the African sculpture people to give me the dates. I told th=m 2 weeks ago to go ahead with the shipping as we had approved the restorat=on. They are telling me they have been shipped which is bullshit as my card=had not been charged and they are not sending me the bill of lading. My gut=is that they have left the store but are waiting at the shipping place. I a= waiting for the owner to phone me as I have only been able to get in touch=with the useless assistant. I have told them I will phone them 3 times a d=y until I know that my sculptures are on the boat. This is South Africa...t=ey give excuses such as ' the weather is bad' and ' the owner was out of th= country'
