Dear Richard,

Lawrence Krauss will not qu=lify as an independent trustee to replace Max unless he qualifies under the=terms of the trust. The trust provides as follows in paragraph 8.2(a) on page 5:

"An independent tru=tee is an individual or institution who has no beneficial interest in the t=ust, who is a professional trustee, investment advisor or manager, investment banker, accountant or lawyer, and who is not related or subordin=te to my husband or any of my children as defined in section 672(c) of the I=ternal Revenue Code."

Please give some considerat=on to naming a successor who qualifies as a professional trustee. A b=nk or trust company with trust powers, rather than an individual, may be ideal in this situation especially as there is a risk of a lawsuit b= the remainder beneficiaries against the independent trustee after Noam's passing. Again, an interview process for a change such as this one is important and should not be rushed.

With regard to the Bainco claim, I am not qualified to negotiate a settlement in this matter. I will discuss this with Gene to determine whether we still have a conflict, and if not, to whom we might refer this matter internally. If we still have a conflict we will identify outside counsel for Noam.

Best,

=

Deborah

deborah,

noam has decided to replace max with Lawrence Kraus, a friend and highly respected scientist, as Trustee. as we discussed if harry agrees, this should put the current issue to rest. he would like gene landy to recommend a person re a lawsuit against bain, but I thought the first step and noam agreed would be a call to bain from you in the hopes of a settlement. If he has to file a lawsuit he understands he will need a different firm as Gene said he thought your firm had a conflict. thanks for your help. I certainly want none of these steps to impede the delivery of the account statements. thx

Dear Noam,

Richard has requested that I speak with M=x regarding some issues that Max raised to him today and that we have discu=sed. Are you in agreement?

Thanks,

Deborah
