Hi=Jeffrey,

Can we meet? I'm distressed over t=e results. They are still volatile. Today there are 2 negative listings= Yesterday, 5. I'm waiting for them to settle.

I don't want to wast= your time and finances.

A few months ago, I g=t you down to 1 neg listing on both national and local results. That occur=ed after listing you with dozens of business directories.

I then changed all of the we=site tags and sent results into a frenzy.

According to Google Webmaster, 8 out of 9&n=sp;websites are fully optimized. But the results have ye= to reflect that.

If =ou approve, I'd like to set up a conference call with an SEO company&=bsp;to review strategy and the quality of the websites. I want to see if t=ey offer anything unique. I'd like to screen a couple of them first, send you info on what sounds best-- before setting up a call. Two tha= I have in mind are Netmark and Digital Whiteout (you mentioned the latter=to me).

Is that okay?

According to Google Webmaster: the .o=g site has crawl errors. Every other site is working at an optimal level.
