i can speak after 12 eastern. . it would be nice for him to see the anu report. do we know if he contacted them?

Thanks. Am pretty sure asu legal will not send anything. Their position is that legally they don't have to and this would undercut that. =C2

I had thought of calling him and appearing surprised by the request and asking what sexual misconduct was referenced as there is nothing at uni and then if he referenced this to sort of laugh and say oh that was dismissed because it was clearly just a third party trying to make trouble but it was shown to never have happened etc.

Then I thought maybe best to not do anything because if they don't have access to the info and they are interested in a story if how Ino responds to this stuff they might not have a story.

Exactly what Nancy said. So should I speak to the reporter?

What I find most important is that in original complaint it says a complaint was lodged at the time with the conference organizers. Then in the final report it concludes no such complaint was lodged.
Indicating a lie.
