If you are opposed to the switches and cup holders fav=ring the inboard side, then I propose that we fabricate a bezel plate that=would incorporate the switches and the cup holders. After fitting, we w=ll have the bezel metal plated to match the switches.=/p>

Attached is a bezel that we had made for the global ex=ress arm rest where we incorporated the cup holder and tv arm receptacle i=to one clean look.

Also attached is a 2 page pdf illustrating the propose= bezel detail for the ledges.
