Subject:	thank you again and some articles

When I was prepping for my Zorro trip I found these 2 articles an =nteresting read and you may find them informative as well.

1st one talks about in depth how bandwidth and internet speeds work and = think gives you an inside view of why thing are the way they are.

2nd one is a support page from Princeton that I think answers in depth =hy you may have network connection issues on a mac

http://www.aidanfinn.com/?p=9566

http://www.net.princeton.edu/mac/network-config-x/index.html#vers anyway thanks for lifting my spirits a bit with this trip ... I deeply =ppreciate it
