There is a 4K projector that Sony makes that is good, but wait for a few more months and one with HDMI 2 will come out which is what you're gonna want.

There were others at dinner and Linda was kind of driving it so I didn't go into depth with Tom on the idea. He did suggest that maybe his son should come work with me for a bit before he goes and joins the family business.

Say hi to Brockman.

Let me work on timing for Reid and Kevin.
