Is this the kind of recommendation I should send in?:

Dear Miss Reinhold,

This is intended as a letter of recommendation for [REDACTED] (hereinafter referred to as [REDACTED]). I first met [REDACTED] when she was a homeless waif around 20 years ago. Feeling bad for her, I took her under my wing and proceeded to sexually abuse her. Needless to say, we had some fun (if you know what I mean!)

I have watched [REDACTED] turn into a thriving dominatrix over the last two decades, entrapping men from all walks of life.
She has made a great career and livelihood out of standing around and looking good in clothing. We should all be so lucky!

I would highly recommend that you accept her to your program, providing, of course, that you have two openings, because tagalong will also want to go.

Feel free to contact me and I'll tell you some good stories.

Izmo

Hello:)

I hope this message find you well.

As a perpetual student I decide to apply to the graduate programme on line (History of Art) as I still have to work during the day.

The school is Academy of Art Univercity in SF.

Strangely enough they want letter of recommendation in a form of email and not the actual letter that you did already.

Would you be so kind and sent an short, few lines email/ letter to this person Melissa Reinhold. See email address below.

[REDACTED]

If you can CC me please on that email.

Thank you!!!!
