Renault and Ford have joined forces to create the perfect small car for=women.

Mixing the Renault 'Clio' and the Ford 'Taurus' they ha=e designed the 'Clitaurus'. It comes in pink, and the average male car thief won't be able to find it=- let alone turn it on - even if someone tells him where it is and how =o do it.

Rumor has it though, that it leaks transmission fluid once a month, and=can be a real bitch to start in the morning! Some have reported that on cold winter morn=ngs you can't get it to turn over.

New models are initially fun to own, but very costly to maintain, and h=rribly expensive to get rid of. Used models may initially appear to have curb appeal and a =ow price, but eventually have an increased appetite for fuel, and the curb=weight typically increases with age. Manufacturers are baffled as to how t=e size of the trunk increases.

This model is not expected to reach collector status. Most owners find =t is best to lease one, and replace it each year.
