Dear Jeffrey,

I am still on a steak diet. I have the impression of a slight improvement of focus and attention. I am also planning to spend a couple weeks separate from my family for writing (i.e. Mira will travel with the children and her parents in Germany, while I lock myself up in a quiet place to get work done on the book). I am looking forward to that.

Bests and, as always, thank you so much for your support!

Joscha
