Gordon. Trivers , thought that you and I might engag= , beginning with my thoughts on your generation theory paper. As =ou might already know, I am well versed in mathematics and Money. =A0 distinguished from economics. I fear your simplified formulas in lar=e part , ignore the past 50 years. since Duchamp and poincare , though=earlier, . (the three body problem). finance , capital theory, =. Fisher Samuelson, Petty, did not have to contend with the world=of currencies, central banks . taxation policy , on a global basis. Mar= did not forsee computers being an equiv to a worker. or workers. Da=winian fitness landscapes. Must be defined by their environmental bound=ries. - not so fast. most of your calculations are intra country,=and in the majority of your well intentioned examples are merely den=minated in dollars. Throw a third body in the mix. and unpredictablity =ecomes provable. (poincare). I loved your schooling variable. but I w=uld suggest more Physics metaphors than math. one must take into acc=unt initial conditions. boundary conditions (environment). resource li=itation and its rate of change. Humans as you write fill new niches,=A0 IT appears that way to humans. niche filling is the basic premise. a=d its interaction with an ever changing environment. I believe that mos= of the equations you choose to use are merely algebraic. They are m=sleading . We live in a world of partial differential equations .=some that are not solvable in real time. man plus women equ=l chlld. . I would argue , does not do the whole story justice. ;)=A0 . anytime you want to just chat feel free to set up a time. =A0
