1. Given that you want to keep the Apollo position can I carve it out from my performance (like Apple)?
2. We are just about finished in opening the Interactive Broker accounts. This will allow us to move the assets from MS and Merrill to IB. I think it will be very beneficial to us if we can open an Alpha Group Capital top account at Interactive Brokers and use that to face ML and MS. They will see Alpha Group as their trading counterparty yet everything will still flow to STC and SFLLC. I think this setup will allow me to maximize both relationships especially for syndicate with MS. If we don't we will be limited to only trading in Gratitude at MS which severely impairs our ability to access syndicate.
