Hi,
Yesterday and today I've been searching possible universities I could study nursing. There are only three schools in [REDACTED] which have nursing programs. That's [REDACTED] University ([REDACTED]

[REDACTED]), Curie Skłodowska University ([REDACTED]) [REDACTED] and Medical University [REDACTED]. All of those start in September and take 3 years of BA and after 2 years of MA or 5 years at once. At Medical University they have also postgraduate programs, which are shorter [REDACTED].

Nursing is not very popular in [REDACTED] anymore, so there is not very much choice. I have found postgraduate public health at [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]) and at [REDACTED]. But they don't say anything about recruitment this semester.

I've been searching also related programs which combine health care with what I have achieved at [REDACTED] - health organization management [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]).

[REDACTED] University - management of health condition in older people [REDACTED] [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]).

There is also very interesting programs at [REDACTED], which is one of best-in [REDACTED] and high in rankings worldwide. They have health protection management or innovations in health care [REDACTED] [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]).

There is also 2 years program of MBA of medical personnel [REDACTED] [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]).

It came to my mind that I could try even wider, which means not only nursing but even something like humanitarian action or social aid or something related. What do you think? Thank you for everything :)

Best wishes
[REDACTED]
