Rich,

Just to be clear the $100k payment we're proposing would include the income distribution to which Noam is entitled currently. If in any given year the income from the trust exceeds $100k, Noam would receive the amount of income. Put another way, Noam would receive a guaranteed payment annually of $100k or the amount of the trust income, whichever is greater.

I will reach out to Harry and request that he confer with his sisters, and then we will email the proposal to Noam and you.

Regards,
Jillian
