Good day James

I am hanging in there getting things back to normal. We are taking it one step at a time. I view it as a project to make things better than before.

I will verify make a model for you tomorrow so we can make sure that it is completely compatible. I don't want JE to be dissatisfied because of an oversight. The reviews of this seems to be very good overall. I remember upgrading the Netflix app and was able to stream some of their "4K" streams pretty well, if there are clogging issues it would not hurt to double check.

Hey Jermaine-

I hope you're well 💎=80💎 or at least as well as possible given the storms, aftermath etc. =

Do you know which model McIntosh the receiver is? We've got a bunch of non-4K ready boxes at various houses, so if we have one that is good & supports 4K pass through I may want to suggest getting more to match it.

Also, how new are the HDMI cables (both from the Apple TV to the receiver & from the receiver to the projector)? The new 4K Apple TV seems to be really picky about which cables and receivers it works with.

Good evening boss

The McIntosh is 4k ready. Also I am working on getting LSJ back online via Li=ton and broadbandvi.
