Hi Jeffrey,

Was talking to Masha again and I told her about the post Cuba event. She wo=ld also like to be involved. We are talking about bringing 12 very interes=ing people together on the personal development and special abilities spac= in an open format for 3 days.

I hope you had a chance to take a look at the polystery deck that I sent yo= before. One of the ideas we have for research and application is to=get people with special abilities that can also train and mentor from all =round the world to support those that are coming into their own (like mash=). This gathering could explore that and also stimulate research in human =potential.

Will need a place to hold this (nyc, Florida, or Paris?). Will get to=ether a list of people and a rough budget. Also anyone in your network who=would also be good (e.g., Joscha).

Let us know what you think.
