Hello Dear Jeffrey ,

Of course I did not. I just wish I had great news for you, as I don't want to disappoint you =

[REDACTED] had to quit his job the week before my birthday, since then I have been fully involved in his process "of what's going on" and it was a moment when I understood if he does not have his job - proposal is not going to happen.

However, just a few days ago he figured out his situation and he starts his own thing, some people give him money to start up his own fund.

Meanwhile we spoke about the ring etc and we have a "proposal deadline" - don't want to bore you in the details because I'm afraid of something going wrong as it had happened before =

At the same time I'm studying every day on my own with books and online course and I'm happy I choose the ACE pt. I just didn't expect it was going to be so overwhelming information volume wise (medicine and science). It's very difficult but I'll go through !

Most of the time we are in Long Island .

Never, though, I'm going to have this issue about the age and life passing by - but sometimes I feel like a wave of "depression".

So I didn't disappear, I just want to have control of my life and have those things completed to feel fully happy.

PS I am always happy to come to you if you need me .

Hope you are doing great :)
