Upon reflection of objective -subjective, one might think of it more like=20 the filing of a bottle. postulating that the shape of the bottle reflecting=ones genetics and natural changes over time. . the lower port=on of the bottle (the stomach), the objective , and the very top of the bottle , the head . the subjective. One cou=d imagine lines on the side of the bottle. the first line . marked aversive, ugly, the very top of the bottle=C2 beautiful ,sublime . The first level the .common ,=the ugly would be filled (stimulated) by the smallest amount of li=uid, (input). , everyone can recognize ugly, smell dead meat etc. based on the various shape= of bottles and how high the neck, combined with the volume of liquid , o=ly a few would experience the sublime. but to experience it th= the bottle would have to be filled. leading to both an object=ve experience and subjective experience. hence no contra=iction.
