he =ever got back to me after my note yesterday fyi..

also, amelia had meeting =ith the university attorney about the request for info on Origins =roject funding. The reporter contacted her yesterday and today =aying he was particularly interested in connections to you.. We =re providing him with minimal information on the budget at this time, =nd minimal information on donors to the foundation.. The good =ews is that if your foundation is listed at all (I am not sure yet what =quirements there are for listing donors, and you can be sure the =iversity will protect any info they legally can because they are =issed off at this journalist) it will be for the postdoctoral prize =ift and undergrad scholarship gifts, which I would be happy for them to =ublish.. :) The Black foundation gift was specifically asked to =e anonymous so I believe that cannot be disclosed in any =ase..

so,=the university will not be getting back to him with information till at =he earliest late next week...
