Subject: Boeing paint

Jeffrey

Morrison indicates a lot of paint touch up since we cleaned up a lot corrosion areas on wing and fuselage.
May be a good time to just scuff and paint the aircraft.

Instead of full strip and paint. Down time could be as low as two weeks for this at Jacksonville shop.

We could keep same paint design and you could select different colors to keep cost low.

Should I get quotes?

My guess $150k or less for scuff and paint.

Thx
Larry
