OK no hurry to make any plans but just want= to give you guys a heads up about The Montreal Comedy Festival. (Check ou= their website at hahaha.c=m <<http://hahaha.com>> . It really is a huge event. Three weeks long!!) The shows I'm ho=ting that JE would love are "The Nasty Shows" at Club Soda July =-13. When it gets closer to the date let me know what works best and I wil= take care of tickets and a great reserved table up front. They usually se=l out a few weeks in advance but even a week out I'm sure I can wrangl= something. Even 3/4 days if it's not more than four people or so. You=can check the site for times. Last years show was stellar and so far they =nly have a few guys booked for this show but they are pretty damn good. It=#39;s usually me and four others. If that week doesn't work out for so=e reason we are doing two more shows on July 26 at a little bit bigger ven=e. (I recommend the first week as the energy in the smaller theater seems =uch better.) With probably the same line up. My suggestion is not to come =p the first few nights as everyone needs a few shows to get into a "g=ooove" so to speak! And if by some crazy wacky off the wall chance JE =ecides to spend the night and enjoy a day in Montreal he can slum it with = spectacular Ritz-Carlton (like there's any other kind) less than a fi=e minute ride to the venue. Most of the comics stay across the street at t=e Hyatt Regency, but that's REALLY slumming!! LOL! As the kids say! Mi=s you guys. Miss NYC. and miss ChezSlay. (My apartment) BS
