Hey Jeffrey,

I'm sending your staff our itemized invoice on the next day or so (I was tied up with some of other client projects)

I was worried there was some sticker shock on the bill and wanted to check with you how you wanted to proceed - I've got a lot of the planning and research / design my staff did ready to share with you.

But wanted to check with you how you'd like to proceed - we can determine a budget for phases / or limit scope going forward?

Most importantly I'm may be planning a trip to NY weekend of Dec 3 and then a week in Florida - want to see if these timeframes co-incident with your travel plans so we can do a session on next steps turning our brainstorming into concrete action plans.

Best-

Austin
