Yes they swivel 180=egrees

when I try to swivel them 180degrees, I have to get out of the s=at to turn them outboard towards the window before they will spin=around, it makes sense that they should swivel inboard, so you can stop in a=y direction while making the swivel, Seams strange you have=to get out of the seat to swivel them, Eric can you check t=e G550 in your hanger to see which way the seat swivels?

I'll ask some of my friends with G550's to swivel thi=r chairs and video which way they move as well.
