Richard,

Not sure what you are referring to, my only thought is that the articles states it will be out in 2015, however does not specify that it will be a 2016 model.

Richard,

Further to our conversation yesterday, we have cancelled deal# 3043352 for the 2016 Pullman.

Deal# 3045057 will remain active for the 2016 S600 Maybach, Jeff will hold order placement #7.

Furthermore on 06/10/14 we charged =2,500.00 deposit per purchase agreement. Yesterday (06/11/14) a refund =n the amount of $2,500.00 was processed for cancellation of deal# =043352.

Just to reiterate, originally there was a =it of confusion as it was understood two vehicles were being =anufactured, 2015 S600 Maybach, released in 1st quarter of =015, and 2016 Pullman.

Two purchases =greements #3043352 & #3045057 were generated and deposits =harged.

Our product specialist department clarified =hat only one vehicle will be manufactured. The "Pullman" now =eferred to as the MB Maybach, S600X (long wheel base). The long =ase offering an additional 8" in length, an exclusive vehicle. Towards the end of November 2014, MB will hold a press release for the =016 S600X Maybach. Shortly after the ordering banks will open up, =t which time orders can be placed to your specifications. =elivery is anticipated approximated 4-6 months later (Between March –May of 2015). To sum it up, delivery of 2016 S600X =aybach will be received in 2nd quarter of 2015.

If you require further clarification, I am =appy to assist.

We thank you for your business and will be =n touch as we get closer.
