This is what I am =oing to send to Johnny.. any thoughts?

Johnny, sorry we haven't been able to connect yet on the =hone..we've been running around like crazy lately and I know =ou are extremely busy as well. Until we're able to talk, I =anted to respond to your text...

First off I am very sorry for the way things turned out, and I want you =o know that I do truly appreciate your help in these matters. I know =ou understand that I have been completely uninvolved with the issue of =egal fees relating to my representation. I don't think =hat you and I ever even spoke about it. I always thought that you =nd Darren were working together directly on all billing matters. =lthough I was quite shocked at the very large balance on the first bill =hat you sent me in December 2017, I referred the bill to Darren and =sked him to resolve it with you directly. I did the same =mmediately for the additional bills you sent me. Again, I was =nder the impression you guys had been in communication on it the whole =ime. Maybe if I had seen regular bills or they had been shared with him =ooner we could have avoided this uncomfortable situation for all of =s.

I think you are right about you both having different views relating to =our billing, but that is really not something I have any experience or =nowledge about; I had never seen a lawyer's bill in my life before =his. Knowing what it should or shouldn't be is way beyond =y understanding. I do understand completely that you will not be =ble to continue to represent me and I am working on getting another =awyer. I really appreciate your willingness to work with =our replacement to make sure I am properly represented, and I will let =ou know as soon as I find someone I feel comfortable with. Thank you =gain for your help and I'm so sorry this all turned out this =ay!
