Thank you for taking the time to see them!

I will provide that # to both so both gentleman can schedule.

Mapp is older and wiser now and this is his last Run for Gov. My cousin Albert paiewonsky and I lunched with him a few weeks ago. Very bright and engaging man with interesting ideas on getting the territory moving again. Word on the street is the campaign is shifting favorably for him because of Donna's lack of energy. No charisma etc.

She has been Delegate for years understands washington but seems out of touch with the pressing issues here like our energy crisis which is crushing businesses struggling with high power bills.

Basil is very bright native virgin Islander who has worked at the interior department as a liaison to the USVI he is running for lieutenant. Governor.

It will be an interesting study in contrasts for you.

I'm sure that will work. How should they set up the meeting?

Hi Jeff,

I hope the summer is treating you well.

One of the gubernatorial candidates, Ken Mapp asked me if I could arrange an introduction with you. I said I would ask on his behalf. Of course you may not be interested in our local politics. And I explained to him not to get his hopes up.

I also went to grade school with Basil Ottley, he is running with Donna Christian for the gubernatorial ticket. He is intelligent.

Best regards,

Filippo
