How do I pay my rent, food, necessities with zero money o= my card? Is there an alternative for me to earn money without a degree in=order to sustain myself alone in the next few days/weeks that is not prost=tution? I'm afraid I'll have to go through this path if I don'= find an other solution quickly to be able to get some food, pay my rent a=d live a decent life without starving.

Hopefu=ly I've noticed it's a job you admire very much and girls have a g=eat lifestyle and make a lot of money out of it. I've left my school f=r you, my life, everything because I trusted you and now I've got no s=pport, I'm not going to school to learn or doing any meaningful job th=t I would have liked in order to earn enough to support myself so I don L=t really see any other solution. All my dreams and hopes have vanished an= life is not as I imagined. At least now I've learned the lesson and I=#39;m prepared- I will never ever trust and be attached to any man in my l=fe again so It's going to be much much easier for me. I'm not sure=if the idea of doing this makes me more sad or terrified but I guess I hav= no choice. I ate an apple today.

If you have an alternative solution let me know.
