You pretend to care while in reality the truth is that yo= don't give a single shit. If you did you wouldn't leave me in thi= situation and struggle so much. If you cared you would help me achieve my=dreams, take some news and take care of me. It's so easy to tell someo=e "I've warned you" without being close to this person. I l=;ve got no money on my card, can't buy food and maybe no house the nex= month since I cannot pay my rent anymore but I understand that reconstruc=ing your islands from scratch is a much bigger priority for you.
