Looking at my night stand, I am reminded of you. The books are a result of =ears of influence. And such great influence. One book was a recommendation=from your friend, the MIT professor. Another is on Space Colonies because,=well, that's fun! But really, the book was put together by Stewart Bra=d, a name that would have remained unfamiliar had it not been for privileg=d visits to TED. And also my love for science fiction, that was never disc=uraged, always included, only grew as a result of you and meeting the many=brilliant influences around you everyday. Thank you for this, and so much =ore. Thinking of you and missing you!
