Anyhow the update is that I'm set on what I'm going to do (plus/min=s some delta that is somewhat independent of me) and the "summary&quo=; is:

"Real-time mobile asset transfer provider that users can trust to send=money cross-border [instantly], efficiently and reliably from anywhere to =nyone."

It sounds dumb, but I have a way bigger plan for this ;) Plus it solves a c=uple of problems that the Fed highlighted (and potentially a problem that =reasury has with bitcoin)

Maybe we should do a Skype call at some point or meet in Europe if you happ=n to stop by Paris or something like that

Take care,
Vincenzo
