I assume by your phrase "comments" you were referring to your voluminous op-ed piece. Yes, though I must admit I was quite hurt when I read it, my experience with people who reach out like you have done to express an apology is very limited. We all say things at some time we wish we had not, but it takes strong character to correct those errors in such a kind way as your email. I hope to be able to have that lunch you suggested as soon as things settle down.
